

Folgende Vorträge werden zurzeit von unseren Referenten angeboten:

Prof. Dr. Matthias Fifka, FAU

- Race to the White House – The 2020 Presidential Election
- Religion in the United States
- Environmental Protection in the US - Is America Greening?
- Globalization in the 21st Century
- Sustainable Development
- Bye Bye Britain - Brexit and its Consequences

Dr. Markus Hünemörder, LMU München

- The Simpsons and American Society – Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of the Perfect Donut
- The Simpsons and Politics: E Pluribus Springfield
- Immigration in the USA: Of Melting Pots and Border Fences
- USA Update 2020 – America in the Age of Trump
- Key Issues in American Foreign Policy – From George Washington to „America First“
- To Keep and Bear Arms? Guns, Gun Control, and Mass Shootings in the US
- Contemporary Race Relations in the US: “Hands Up, Don’t Shoot” or “Post-Racial Society”?

Andrea Kuhn, M.A., Filmfestival der Menschenrechte

- Film Analysis: The Construction of Motion Pictures

Tom Peine, Assistant Public Information Officer for Bexar County, San Antonio, Texas

- Police Training in the U.S. - Online Talk with Former Deputy Sheriff Tom Peine

Ort: DAI-Bibliothek (vormittags) oder vor Ort in der Schule

Gebühr: €3 pro Schüler

Bei Interesse melden Sie sich bitte bei Katya Davis
(0911-230-69-12, programm@dai-nuernberg.de)