

DAI Lectures

Summer 2023, 3-5€ per student***

10th grade and up; price dependent upon number of students

Please note that some of the lectures below have fixed times and locations, while others can be scheduled to your convenience. Please email Katya Davis at programm@dai-nuernberg.de to register. Programs with fixed dates are scheduled on a first-come, first-served basis. Requests for in-school lectures will depend on distance to the school.

---

“Film Analysis” with Andrea Kuhn, M.A.

Date: June 20th, June 22nd

Time: 11:00-12:30

Location: DAI

“The United States Abroad: the US State Department & Diplomacy” with Jonah Otto, University of Augsburg

The United States is very active on the world stage through the efforts of the US State Department. This talk explains the State Department’s mission, strategies and structures in order to provide context as to what it does and why it does it and also discusses current trends and challenges.

Date: June 29th

Time: Scheduled per request upon registration

Location: At the DAI or your school

Lecture with Dr. Markus Hünemörder, LMU Munich

Dr. Hünemörder offers a wide variety of lectures ranging from the debate around gun control in the United States to religion, national parks, and more. Please find his full list of available topics on our website.

Date: June 30th

Time and Topic: Scheduled per request upon registration

Location: At your school

“Commander in Chief: the US Presidency” with Jonah Otto, University of Augsburg

Everyone knows that the US President is the elected leader of the United States, but it is sometimes unclear as to what exactly that means. This talk sheds light on not only the President’s formal powers and responsibilities as stated within the US Constitution, but also discusses the unofficial power and influence of the President and what this means in modern times.

Date: July 5th

Time: Scheduled per request upon registration

Location: DAI or your school

“Making Judgments: the US Judiciary & Supreme Court” with Jonah Otto, University of Augsburg

The US Supreme Court has been receiving increased attention by the media and by broader society, but why? This talk details the US court system and explains the mechanisms through which the Supreme Court exercises its influence, as well as discussing modern controversies and the future outlook.

Date: July 12th

Time: Scheduled per request upon registration

Location: At your school

“Submitting the Ballot: the US Voting System & Voting Rights” with Jonah Otto, University of Augsburg

On the surface, voting for elected officials may seem very straightforward, but each country has their own set of complexities and nuances that separate their system from those of other countries. This talk lays out the voting system and voting rights in the US’s federal system, explaining who can and can’t vote, how those that are allowed to vote can actually vote, and the controversial topics surrounding US elections, such as voter suppression, voter fraud and election legitimacy.

Date: July 18th

Time: Scheduled per request upon registration

Location: At the DAI or your school

